MISSION STATEMENT
To improve the quality of life, independence, health and dignity of the City’s older population by managing community based senior programs that are comprehensive, coordinated and accessible, and to advocate for the needs of seniors and caregivers.

Letter from the General Manager

The City of Los Angeles Department of Aging is once again pleased to present its Program and Service Provider Directory for seniors and caregivers. It is indeed our hope that you find the Directory useful.

The Directory provides information about various senior and caregiver services provided within the City, including the locations and telephone numbers to senior centers and community services. It outlines many other excellent programs offered to seniors and provides a list of caregiver resources in addition to emergency help contact phone numbers.

The Department is honored to be able to serve you and is thankful for your continued support of our City programs and services.

Sincerely,

LAURA TREJO
General Manager

There are sixteen (18) multipurpose senior centers (MPC) and over 100 community dining centers throughout the City of Los Angeles. These centers serve as community focal points for senior services. Services provided at each MPC include the programs and services listed below.

If you feel that you need any of these services, or if you are interested in finding out about older adult services and activities in your community, please call the MPC in your area; zip codes are listed, starting on page 4.

CARE MANAGEMENT

Is designed to assess the social and health needs of frail seniors, to develop a care plan to meet these needs and to ensure that the care plan works as designed.

INFORMATION AND ASSISTANCE

Is designed to provide seniors and caregivers with information about the different services and programs available, and to link seniors who need assistance to appropriate services.

IN-HOME SERVICE

Is designed to assist frail seniors in maintaining independent living by providing assistance with heavy household tasks, cooking, shopping or light housekeeping, and providing friendly visits.

NUTRITION SERVICES

All meals are designed to meet a minimum of one-third of the Recommended Daily Dietary Allowance Requirement as well as meet the varied tastes of the City’s diverse ethnic communities.

COMMUNITY DINING CENTERS

Hot, nutritious meals are provided five days a week, in over 100 community dining center locations throughout the City. These meals are available to any senior who wishes to participate. Donations are encouraged; however, no one is turned away because of an inability to contribute.

Each of the fifteen service areas listed on the following pages has one agency administering the nutrition program for that area (the MPC) and numerous dining center locations within that area from which to choose.

HOME-DELIVERED MEALS

The Home-Delivered Meals program delivers one-hot, nutritious meal daily, 5 days a week, to participating homebound seniors who, because of physical or mental disability, are unable to attend a community dining center location.
LISTING OF COMMUNITY SERVICE CENTERS

The following pages list the Multipurpose Senior Centers (MPC) and community dining centers throughout the City.

To identify which center serves your area, use the MPC and Zip Code list on the next pages.

Emergency Alert Response System (EARS)

The Emergency Alert Response System (EARS) program promotes security and independence of elderly persons by providing telecommunication equipment that will permit them to remain in their home and delay costly institutionalization.

The EARS program targets residents of the City who are at least 62 years of age, frail, medically needy, home-bound, live alone and meet federal income guidelines. The program is a cooperative effort with the Care Management program in each of the Multipurpose Senior Centers (MPCs).

Persons interested in obtaining this service should contact their nearest MPC. To look for the nearest MPC, go to page 4, look for the senior’s ZIP Code, and go to the corresponding page.

The Dispute Resolution Program of the Office of the Los Angeles City Attorney was established in 1989 to provide the Los Angeles Community easily assessable, informal, confidential and free methods of resolving conflict.

Dispute Resolution is a term used to describe a variety of options for dealing with disputes; this includes the option of Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) which typically refers to a method of re-solving disputes by means not associated with formal litigation (court), such as mediation, facilitation and conciliation.

The Dispute Resolution Program mediates all types of civil disputes including:

- Landlord/Tenant
- Neighbor/Neighbor
- Consumer/Merchant
- Community related

Senior Employment Training Program (Title V)

The Department’s Senior Employment Training Program provides part-time on-the-job training for seniors. Eligible persons are City of Los Angeles residents, 55 years or older, and whose income falls within federal low-income guidelines.

The goal of the program is unsubsidized employment for older workers. Seniors are placed either in a classroom training program or assigned to a community-based agency. While in this supportive environment, the senior acquires new career skills or builds on existing ones while earning a wage. The program offers seniors assistance with job referrals during the job search period of transitioning to unsubsidized employment.

For further information about this program, please call (800) 510-2010, Monday through Friday, between 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

To complete an application and/or be placed on the waiting list, you may visit any of the following Title V offices:
